Afrocat is a DJ/Selector, Radio Host, Music & Culture Curator, Producer, Activist & Entrepreneur.

She has an intergalactic career, spinning since '99.

Performed in the UK, USA, Brasil, Spain, Dubai, Portugal, Italy & Austria, from an impressively eclectic collection, with a particular focus on 70's styles, production and vibes, with a shot of Studio54.

She is a connoisseur of heavy basslines and badass beats, and truly delights in sharing only the finest international sounds including deep funk, dancefloor jazz, vintage reggae, dub, disco, blues, Afro-Latino rhythms, 70's soundtracks, psychedelic grooves, originals and obscure.

Afrocat trained in sound engineering at Mute Records, London, and produces her own original music fusing dub, jazz & hip-hop, with her own lyrics and vocals.

As well as a monthly residency on Aaja Radio, Afrocat hosts her show, Blaxploitation Lounge, monthly on Threads Radio and Slack City.

She performs at gigs frequently, and loves nothing more than playing at festivals, clubs, and events, lifting the vibration, and spreading some love.

"We chose to book Afrocat as a feature act for our performance at the Impulstanz festival, where we hosted the closing night.

Afrocat performed professionally in every way you can expect from a musician.

Her musical selection complemented our event perfectly.

She read the audience of the Impulstanz Lounge well, and kept up the high level of energy.

She didn't hesitate for a second to put in the extra effort, when we were asked to play two hours longer than initially contracted.

I can therefore recommend booking her for any event, in which you wish to have a crowded dancefloor, no matter whether your audience is keen on Funk, Reggae, or Jungle"
